MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, September 21, 1932.
Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has adopted Senate concurrent resolution No. 11, suspending the 24-hour rule, by the following vote: Yeas 24, nays 0.

Respectfully,
BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

REMARKS OF SPEAKER MINOR.

On motion of Mr. Greathouse, the following remarks were ordered printed in the Journal:

(Remarks of the Speaker on the closing of the Third Called Session, Forty-second Legislature.)

Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

I desire to take this occasion to express to the members of the House my sincere appreciation of the confidence reposed in me when the House unanimously elected me to the high office of Speaker. I have probably presided for a longer period of time over the Texas House of Representatives than any other Speaker in the history of the State. Whether this be true, or not, I feel that I am safe in saying that I have presided longer than any other Speaker within the past fifty years.

I cannot find words to express my deep appreciation of the many courtesies shown me by the membership of this House. You have at all times been considerate. During the time I have presided, you will recall that I have never submitted a point of order to the House for its determination, feeling that it was incumbent upon me as your presiding officer to solve such problems. Many times these problems have been difficult of solution. The feelings of the members have at times been intense upon the questions before the House for discussion. Conditions have sometimes probably made it appear that I have been abrupt and harsh in the determination of the questions at hand. May I say, however, that at all times I have endeavored to be as fair and impartial as it is humanly possible for any individual to be. I have doubtless made many mistakes in the rulings made, but out of your kind consideration, no member has ever appealed from any ruling made. I am naturally proud of this record. But I feel, of course, that the record is due more to your kind consideration of me, and the position which I have occupied, than of the correctness of the rulings which I have made. For this I am deeply grateful.

I naturally assume that this is the last day I shall preside over the deliberations of this body, as adjournment has been set for this date. Naturally, therefore, this will terminate my services. It has been my highest endeavor as the Speaker of this House to be guilty of no act, public or private, that would reflect dishonor upon the high office to which you were kind enough to elevate me, and I have the consciousness at the close of my tenure of office as your Speaker that I am handing back to you and to the people of this State the commission placed in my hands unsullied and unstained, and as I go from this hall at the close of this session, I shall carry with me grateful memories of the many courtesies which you have shown toward me. I go with a mingled feeling of satisfaction and regret. The satisfaction comes from the consciousness that I have given to the discharge of the duties of this office the best that is within me. The regret comes from the fact that the pleasant associations which I have had with the membership of this House must be severed. I wish for each and every member of this House health, happiness and prosperity, and I bid you and each of you God speed. Again, I thank you.

(Mr. Sanders in the chair.)

Mr. Johnson of Dimmit moved that the House extend to Speaker Fred H. Minor a rising vote of appreciation.

The motion prevailed unanimously.

(Speaker in the chair.)

TO SUSPEND JOINT RULE NO. 11.

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 11, To suspend certain joint rules.

Whereas, There are a number of bills pending on the calendars of both houses, which should have the attention of the Legislature at this time; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That the joint rule known as the "24-Hour Rule," preventing the consideration of any bill within twenty-four hours of adjournment, be, and the same is hereby, suspended until noon, Wednesday, September 21, 1932.

The resolution was read second time.

In Memory of Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner.

Mr. Brooks offered the following resolution:

Whereas, On September 20, 1932, at 12:25 p. m., Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, 81-year-old mother of John Nance Garner, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, was called from her earthly labors and cares to share her eternal reward with the Master of life and death; and

Whereas, This pioneer woman of Red River county has carried the torch of civilization ever forward and kept the home fires of Christianity burning, that was an inspiration to her friends and loved ones, that gave to them the desire and will to press onward and upward to a greater life; and

Whereas, Her gentleness of manner and kindly spirit will bloom again in the lives of others while the race of men goes on; and

Whereas, It was her great desire to live to see her eldest son, John Nance Garner, whose name and deeds are emblazoned across the sky of Southern democracy, elected to the second highest position within the gift of the people of these United States. That her falling to silent sleep today without the culmination of that earnest desire makes it doubly sad to the State of Texas as we commend her dust to the earth from whence it came and her spirit to God, Who gave it; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, That we deplore the passing of this kindly friend and mother, and point to her character, builded through the years of Texas history from its struggling early existence to its outstanding prominence among the States of the nation, with pardonable pride and hold it up to the youth of the State as one worthy of emulation. That the fragrance of her personality will remain while memory lasts; be it further

Resolved, That we desire to express and tender our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their bereavement to her sons and daughters, John Nance Garner, Jessie Garner, Jolly Garner, Mrs. Maud Blair and Mrs. John Wright; be it still further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of today's Journal; that a copy be forwarded to the members of her family, and that when we adjourn today it be in memory and honor of Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner.

BROOKS.
